PRECONFERENCE
Traps, Tricks and Deception—
Protecting Your Fund From High-Cost Cyber Risks
June 28, 2020
Hundreds of trustees, administrators and plan professionals gather each year to attend one of the institutes. The consistent attendance over the years speaks to the importance of the issues facing the benefits world and to the quality education provided by the International Foundation. Developed by active trustees, administrators and professional advisors, each session is designed to address the issues you face today and prepare you for what lies ahead. In these challenging times, you can count on the International Foundation to deliver timely, relevant and balanced education on the trends, issues and future direction of the industry. Register today!

Who Should Attend

Two-Day Preconference:

New Trustees Institute—Level II: Concepts in Practice
Designed for multiemployer trustees with three to five years of experience who have taken New Trustees Institute—Level I: Core Concepts

One-Day Preconference:

Traps, Tricks and Deception—Protecting Your Fund From High-Cost Cyber Risks
Designed for trustees, administrators and plan professionals

New Trustees Institute—Level I: Core Concepts

Fraud can happen at any time, in any place, which means it’s more important than ever to do your due diligence and have the knowledge you need to protect your organization’s well-being. Regardless of the security measures they have in place, all organizations are vulnerable to the threat of fraud. You are responsible for having the tools necessary to prevent issues such as cyberattacks, data breaches and claims fraud.

Learning Objectives
- How to spot social engineering fraud
- Monitoring tools and tests to be implemented to help avoid cybersecurity fraud
- Providers that offer solutions
- Creating an appropriate insurance portfolio
- What coverage typically contains
- Third-party coverage

Who Should Attend?
This workshop is designed for all those responsible for the preservation and protection of plan assets. With the rapid change in technology and the ever-changing threat of cyberattacks, every benefits practitioner could benefit from this critically important education.

Recommended Education Path for Multiemployer Trustees

Making informed decisions is a key component to the success of a multiemployer trust fund. Trustees must understand a wide range of issues—complex regulations, legislation, health care systems and investment strategies. Education about these topics is crucial.

In order to help trustees meet their educational needs, the International Foundation offers a wide range of courses and conferences. In order to help determine which program fits your needs, we have created a recommended educational path.

U.S. Multiemployer Trustee Education Path

New Trustees Institute—
Level II: Concepts in Practice

Saturday, June 27, 2020 | 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.
Sunday, June 28, 2020 | 8:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.

Register early—Classes sell out quickly!

This program was designed for those who completed the New Trustees Institute—Level I: Core Concepts. Picking up where Level I leaves off, Level II: Concepts in Practice takes a deeper dive into key topics and explores how they apply to trust fund management.

Developed and presented by experienced multiemployer fund trustees, administrators and advisors, this institute provides the practical information a trustee needs to know with a focus on application. Limited attendance and small-group discussion of real-world examples will give you a firmer grasp of your fiduciary responsibilities and effective trust fund management.

“New Trustees—Level II tied a lot of things together. The information from the activities was especially helpful. This is a necessary training program if you plan to be a trustee.”

Economic Update

Favorable investment returns are key to providing stability to your benefit funds, but there is often some insecurity in economic conditions during a presidential election. With the economy dominating the national conversation this year, this opening session will offer a snapshot of the current economic forecast that considers:

- Current market conditions
- Key economic indicators
- How presidential elections affect investments.

Libby Cantrill, CFA, Executive Office, Public Policy, Pacific Investment Management Company (PIMCO), New York, New York
Concurrent Sessions | 9:00-10:15 a.m.

Political and Legislative Changes in Health Care

Health care dominated the news during the 2018 midterm elections and continues to be a controversial political topic. This session will discuss health care changes made over the last year at both the state and national levels, the potential future for the Affordable Care Act (ACA) and other topics such as:

- Trends in inflation
- Effects of federal legislative changes on ACA
  - Repeal of certain ACA requirements
  - Court cases on ACA
- Evolution of health care in states that fully enacted ACA vs. those that didn’t
- Current state of ACA exchanges
- HRA and HSA regulations.

Lisa M. Gomez, Partner, Cohen, Weiss and Simon LLP, New York, New York

Reading and Understanding the Actuarial Report

Actuarial reports may seem easy to understand but, in reality, they are a complicated matter. In this session, we will discuss the most important aspects of actuarial reports to ensure that you fully understand the process and terminology, including:

- What is typically included in an actuarial report
- Trends in actuarial science
- Present value of benefits
- Credit balance and standard cost.

Charles T. Carr, Consulting Actuary, Southern Actuarial Services Company, Inc., Atlanta, Georgia
MONDAY | June 29 (continued)

Concurrent Sessions | 10:30-11:45 a.m.

Pension Reform and Retirement Benefits Update

Presidential politics permeate almost all areas of national discussion during an election year. And although Congress has yet to pass significant pension reform, the looming retirement crisis has caused new proposals and recommendations to be made by politicians of all stripes. Topics for this session include:

- Legislation and political proposals
- The persistent problem of pension underfunding
- PBGC funding problems
- Fiduciary rule.

Neal S. Schelberg, Partner, Proskauer LLP, New York, New York

Wellness Programs—Are They Working for Your Fund?

Wellness programs have been touted as a way to engage high-risk plan participants to help improve their health, productivity and morale while saving your plan money in the process. But now that some groups have had these programs in place for a few years, have they been successful in meeting their goals? This session will focus on how wellness programs obtain the best results, as well as discuss:

- Typical wellness operations and programs
- Assessing the value of wellness programs
- Is it money well spent?
  - Are only the healthy people using these programs?
- What it takes to make your program successful.

Brett R. Powell, B.A., CWPC, Vice President, Wellness Consultant, American Institute for Preventive Medicine, Farmington Hills, Michigan

11:45 a.m.-1:15 p.m.

Lunch
Concurrent Sessions | 1:15-2:30 p.m.

Retirement Insecurity—
Diagnosis of the Retirement Landscape

What people need for retirement changes as different generations enter the workforce. This session will discuss the various avenues of savings people rely upon for their retirement and how that affects the management of your retirement plans. Topics include:

Innovations in Digital Health Care for Families

One of the biggest advancements in health care over the last few years has been the rise of digital health. In this session, we will discuss what our benefit plans can do to utilize these innovations to best serve our participants and their families. Topics include:

- Innovations in health care delivery
  - Telepsychology and other digital therapies
- Risks and benefits
- Use of digital health care in families
- Implementing these tools in your own health care plan.

Leah Sparks, CEO and Founder, Wildflower Health, San Francisco, California
Concurrent Sessions | 9:00-10:15 a.m.
Impact of Divorces on Your Benefit Plans

When a participant gets divorced, it can directly affect his or her future benefits. Your benefit plan needs to have effective policies in place to address these issues, and in this session, we cover:

- Qualified domestic relation orders (QDROs)—Administrative processes
- Medical support orders and the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA)
- Financial disruption
  - Legal plans
  - Beneficiaries and beneficiary forms—Processes and procedures to implement for your fund.

San Francisco, California

Hilton San Francisco Union Square is located in the theater district of San Francisco and is within walking distance of both cable cars and Chinatown. This historic hotel provides beautiful city views as well as relaxation on its 16th-floor pool deck.

The International Foundation has secured a reduced room rate of $289 single/double for attendees. You must book your room through the International Foundation by specifying your hotel needs on your registration form. Reservation deadline is May 22, 2020.

Location Details
San Francisco and its winding streets have much to offer. Located on a peninsula in northern California, the city is surrounded by the San Francisco Bay and the Pacific Ocean. San Francisco is widely known for the Golden Gate Bridge, cable cars and colorful Victorian homes. Fisherman’s Wharf is a popular attraction that offers crab shacks for snacking, San Francisco souvenirs and the famous sea lions on the rocks. The Golden Gate Bridge, spanning one mile across the strait connecting the Bay and the Pacific Ocean, is the second-longest bridge in the United States.
Accounting & Auditing—
Institute for Employee Benefit Plans

_Held in conjunction with the Trustees and Administrators Institute_
June 29-July 1, 2020

The DOL’s focus on audit quality demands a commitment to education. The Accounting and Auditing Institute is the premier learning opportunity for those who audit employee benefit plans. Planned by industry practitioners, this conference will keep you up to date on the latest accounting rules, reporting and disclosure requirements, and the changing benefits industry. Take advantage of this opportunity to stay educated and earn continuing professional education (CPE) credit while networking with peers as well as trustees and administrators who are attending the accompanying programs.

Who Should Attend
The Accounting and Auditing Institute for Employee Benefit Plans is designed for internal and external accountants who serve employee benefit plans. Sessions will appeal to both new and seasoned practitioners who serve single employer and multiemployer plans.

Special Registration Discounts
Pair up with a colleague—Bring individuals from your firm or fund who have NOT previously attended the Institute, and they will receive a $400 discount with your paid registration (at the regular rate). New attendees should enter code 20NEWG1 when registering.

The 66th Annual Employee Benefits Conference is the largest gathering of multiemployer and public employee benefit plan representatives. This must-attend event offers you the opportunity to network with your peers, be surrounded by industry experts and learn the latest in the industry so you can make the most informed decisions on behalf of your funds.
Exhibit and Sponsorship Opportunities

Do you have a service provider that could benefit from exhibiting at or sponsoring the Trustees and Administrators Institute? Or do you offer a product or service that could be beneficial to trustees and administrators supporting multiemployer and public sector benefit plans? Valuable exhibitor and sponsorship opportunities are available at the June institute.

Benefits of Exhibiting at the Trustees and Administrators Institute

The exhibit hall at the Trustees and Administrators Institute is structured specifically to build valuable connections with attendees. As an exhibitor, you will:

• Reach a concentrated audience of nearly 400 trustees, administrators and plan professionals who serve multiemployer benefit plans
• Build relationships among those who do not attend the Annual Conference (75% of attendees at the institutes do not attend the Annual Conference.)
• Secure quality leads—Attendees at the institutes are decision makers who can directly impact your bottom line
• Learn about the issues impacting your clients today by participating in educational sessions and networking with peers.

Each Exhibit Space Includes:

• One complimentary conference registration
• Company listing in preconference and conference publications
• Exhibitor listing on website
• Promotional listing in the Exhibitor and Sponsor Directory, which is distributed to all attendees.

Reception, continental breakfast and luncheons are served in the exhibit hall.

Limited spaces available!
