

Doral P. Johnson, CEBS

Manager, Pensions
University of Saskatchewan
Saskatoon, Saskatchewan

Doral manages a team of pension specialists, delivering financial and people leadership, strategic planning, risk management, environmental scanning and partnership development to the University of Saskatchewan's Pension Plans. The University of Saskatchewan supports a diverse set of pension plans (defined contribution, defined benefit and hybrid; open; and closed) representing over $1.5 billion in combined assets. Previously, Doral served as a consultant and third-party administrator for over 25 years. His practice included establishing new benefit trusts, navigating pension plan mergers and coordinating pension plan wind-ups. He earned his bachelor of arts degree from the University of Calgary, and he holds the Certified Employee Benefit Specialist® (CEBS®) designation from the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans.
